

U.S. Embassy in Cairo TechGirls Exchange Program

Description:

The TechGirls program is an educational exchange initiative for approximately 25 teenage girls from the Middle East and North Africa. The three-to five-week exchange program in the United States will take place in July 2014, tentatively July 31 – August 21, 2014 and will focus on promoting the high-level study of applied technology. Eligible participants will be high school girls, aged 15 to 17 years old, who already have a demonstrated aptitude and strong interest in the field of technology. The program aims to empower girls to pursue higher education and careers in technology; link peers who share interests and abilities; develop the leadership skills of the participants; promote mutual understanding among the peoples of the United States and the countries and territories of the Middle East and North Africa.

Eligibility Requirements:

Ideal candidates must:

- be between the ages of 15 and 17 as of July 1, 2014 (born after July 1, 1997, and before July 1, 1999);
- have demonstrated advanced skills and a serious interest in technology, engineering, and/or math in their academic studies;
- intend to pursue higher education and careers in technology;
- have strong English language skills;
- be excited about learning;
- exhibit maturity, flexibility, and open-mindedness; and
